Letter of Invitation

Dear Principal,

I am happy to inform you that our Commerce Club has embarked upon a noble and novel idea of conducting a Commerce Fest, B-World. The Fest is 'of the students , for the students and by the students'

The Fest gives the students an opportunity to showcase their talents and to awaken their dormant and innate qualities. I thank Dr. Manish Magan , the inspiration behind B-World and teacher in-charge of the Commerce Club, and all the students for putting up a show that will take deep root in the soil of knowledge, and wisdom not only among the participating schools, but also among the students.

Fr. Paul Thannickal
Principal

"Beautiful thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you"

Message

From the Head of Commerce Department

An important role of education is to provide the learners with a continuous learning environment, abolishing distance, time, and curricula. There are many innovative things happening in education which make it more accessible, exciting, collaborative and inclusive. Management and commerce have over the years played a vital role in modern education system.

This Commerce Fest aims at cultivating an ambience of learning in the field of commerce and communication among the students and inculcating in them a desire to ascend greater heights to patronize in this field.

I, being the Convenor have the privilege of inviting you to the B-World, a fair of enthusiasm, culture, competition, knowledge and wisdom. I also wish all the participating institutions all the best and hope that this event will be cherished for many more years to come.

I take this opportunity to thank the students for taking initiative to organise this Fest. I am sure it will go a long way, not only in enhancing their knowledge but also in mapping out their individual careers. I am also indebted to Dr. A.P Antony who has always provided a support behind the curtain. I am indeed grateful to Fr. Paul Thannickal, our Principal, for his guidance and motivation, and to Fr. Francis D'souza, vice-Principal for his unstinted support.

Dr. Manish Magan

"It is better to look ahead and prepare than to look back and regret"

Prime Minister, Student Parliament

Dear ,

It is indeed my privilege to invite you to this competition which is an assortment of excitement, zeal, new ideas, spirit of healthy competition and responsible leadership qualities.

As our motto 'Ascend heights, reach summit' says, this event will be instrumental in building leadership and managerial skills. It will also help the students to air their views and share their vision with aplomb. This competition will provide the students ample opportunities to ascend heights that are considered insurmountable.

I am greatly indebted to our Principal who has been the guiding force and inspiration behind this event. I am thankful to our vice-Principal who has been boosting our morale for this event. I sincerely thank Dr. Manish Magan who is a man of vision and mission and the one who has conceptualized this gala event that would ignite the lamps and show the world that we all are part and parcel of the awakened society. A world of hard work has gone into the preparation of the event, and I thank all the members of the Commerce Club and all my colleagues who have been working assiduously for the success of this event by their active participation. I look forward to the active and wholehearted participation of different schools in the B-WORLD.
